Pope Francis' February Prayer Intention:

*For religious sisters and consecrated women –
 We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.*

From today's Reading

Jer 17:5-8/ 1Cor 15:12,16-20/ Luke 6:17,20-26

For this and the following two Sundays we will be reading from Luke's 'Sermon on the Plain' which parallels Matthew's 'Sermon on the Mount.' The First Reading is a little bit of wisdom poetry. It contrasts the wicked who trust in human beings and the righteous who trust in God. The former, are compared to a barren desert shrub; the latter to a fruitful tree planted beside a flowing river. This prepares us for the Gospel, where Jesus declares the poor blessed. The poor are the 'little ones' who have no one to trust in but God.

The beatitudes echo the programme Jesus announced in the synagogue at Nazareth. Whereas Matthew has nine Beatitudes, Luke has only four, with, however, four corresponding 'woes'.

Pastor's Desk – The Order of Mass series

d) Glory - Praise to the Lord, this is a beautiful prayer. We say or sing at all solemnity Mass and almost Sunday Mass. However, Glory never says or sings on Advent and Lent Sundays. "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will... (Luke 2:14)." When Jesus was born in Bethlehem, the angels, the heaven and earth —people gathered together and greeted Saviour, Redeemer who came down from heaven. People welcome Jesus to save us...

Nowadays, before we offer our intentions to God and listen to the living word of God, we praise to the Lord by singing the Glory again and again. (Next...)

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Blessed are you when people hate you, ...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." (Luke 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

The World Day of the Sick. is celebrated each year on Feb. 11, the Memorial of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Our Lady of Lourdes. The theme for the 30th World Day of the Sick is: "Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful" (Luke 6:36).

"Jesus' invitation to be merciful like the Father has particular significance for healthcare workers. I think of all those physicians, nurses, laboratory technicians, the support staff and the caretakers of the sick, as well as the numerous volunteers who donate their precious time to assist those who suffer. Dear healthcare workers, your service alongside the sick, carried out with love and competence, transcends the bounds of your profession and becomes a mission. Your hands, which touch the suffering flesh of Christ, can be a sign of the merciful hands of the Father."

– Pope Francis, XXX World Day of the Sick
