Pope Francis' June Prayer Intention:

For families – We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

From today's Reading

Gen 14:18-20/ 1Cor 11:23-26/ Lk 9:11b-17

The First Reading tells how Melchizedek, king of Salem (early name for Jerusalem), comes to greet Abraham. Melchizedek is also a priest. As such he brings an offering of bread and wine to Abraham, and pronounces a blessing over him. In Christian tradition that bread and wine were taken to prefigure the bread and wine of the Eucharist.

Paul's account of the institute of the Eucharist is the earliest written account of the origin of the Eucharist (Second Reading). When we celebrate the Eucharist not merely is Christ present, but we re-enact the death by which he saved us. The Eucharist not only looks to the past, but also looks forward to the fulfillment of the Kingdom.

The Eucharistic significance of the multiplication of the loaves is brought out by the use of liturgical language Luke uses the same words here as at the Last Supper and at Emmaus: Jesus 'took...blessed...broke...gave...' In the Eucharist the Church continues the mission of Jesus to teach, to heal, and to nourish the people of God.

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick. As a clarification to the communication that was sent out on February 15th, the masking mandate is being removed as of 12:01 am Monday, February 28th. As of Monday, you may change to optional masking in your parish. Please be sure that anyone who chooses to wear a mask feels comfortable doing so. Here are the recommendations that we offered last week:

It is suggested that at such time that masks become optional that the priest continues to wear a mask during the Eucharistic Prayer or to be sure that ciboria are covered while the Eucharistic prayer is being prayed; and strongly suggested that masks are worn by clergy and extraordinary ministers of communion during the distribution of communion. Eucharist should continue to be distributed in the form of the Body of Christ only at this time and not include the common cup.

It is important that good hand hygiene continue. Please continue to supply hand sanitizer in easily accessible areas.

Anyone who is sick should stay home. Although the public dispensation from Mass has not been in effect since August 2021 (see Lifting the Dispensation on Sunday Mass Attendance), the sick and medically vulnerable have always been dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass. If you are ill, elderly, or medically vulnerable in any way, you are urged to continue to take every precaution to keep yourself and others safe.

Thank you for your continued diligence.

The last weekly bulletin until September will be June 25. The deadline to submit bulletin announcements for the July bulletin is Wednesday June 29.

There will be no morning mass the week of July 3-8, 2022.

The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation Program

Share the Joy of the Gospel!

"I'm more conscious that God is around me all the time. To know that He is everywhere with every person has helped me to step out of my comfort zone. Everyone has their little quirks and I see those as gifts or their own personal freedom of being who they are." - Beckey Franke, St. John the Baptist Parish, Estevan

One weekend a month from October to June, Catholics just like you are gathering at Campion College in Regina as they become more deeply aware of God's personal love and activity in their lives. Why not make their story, your story?

We are currently accepting applications for our Fall intake. For more information on how to register or our COVID-19 health and safety protocols, please contact our Program Coordinator, Deacon Eric Gurash at 306-352-1651 ext 6724 or email him at egurash@archregina.sk.ca

SAINTS IN OUR LIVES: FROM THE EARLY CHRISTIAN MARTYRS TO PEOPLE MAGAZINE - Public Lecture: Monday July 11, 7:00 - 9:00 p.m. Fr. Ron Rolheiser OMI. The most powerful books ever written are not written on paper but in the lives, faces, and witness of real people who inspire us and whose lives we want to emulate. For many centuries this was an important way Christian spirituality was taught. We were given the lives of the saints to imitate. For reasons ranging from the way many of the lives of the saints were written to the fact that many people today see the lives of the rich and famous as the "lives of the saints", devotion to the saints today has sharply declined. We are the poorer for this. What do the saints of old still have to tell us? Who are the saints of today? Hagiography in a new key. On Zoom, $50 for Monday evening only, or part of the complete retreat July 11-14 (zoom or in-person). See website for all registration fees and further details: <https://www.queenshouse.org/programs/>

What is National Indigenous Peoples Day (NIPD)?

June 21 is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is a day for all Canadians to recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. The Canadian Constitution recognizes these three groups as Aboriginal peoples, also known as Indigenous peoples.

Although these groups share many similarities, they each have their own distinct heritage, language, cultural practices and spiritual beliefs. In cooperation with Indigenous organizations, the Government of Canada chose June 21, the summer solstice, for National Aboriginal Day, now known as National Indigenous Peoples Day. For generations, many Indigenous peoples and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on or near this day due to the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year. Please check with your local community to see if there events you can join on June 21st. Information on the event in Regina can be found here: <https://tourismregina.com/calendar/regina-national-indigenous-peoples-day-celebration/>

Stewardship Bulletin Bit

Body and Blood of Christ

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (Luke 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

TF#301: Dating Well with Dr. Mario Sacasa - Part 1

Join the discussion with Dr. Mario Sacasa from the Always Hope Podcast as we discuss his new online course 'Dating Well'. We'll look at fostering a healthy approach to dating and relationships and the particular challenges faced by discerning couples in our modern world.

Show Snippet: If we fall into an overly pious way of dating or concept of dating, then we can think, "Well, as long as we agree that Jesus Christ is the Lord, that the Catholic Church is the one true Church, that we pray together, and that's all we need"...but you know your relationship is going to be built on so much more than just going to Mass together."

From Fear to Love:
Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times from the Henry
Nouwen Society

We live in trying times. Wars, mass shootings, climate change, political and economic polarization, hate crimes... and a pandemic that just won't go away! Add to this the stack of personal burdens that so many endure on a daily basis. Despite the unbelievable advances in almost every area of life, advances our grandparents would be hard-pressed to even imagine, life is unavoidably anxious, stressful, and unpredictable.

Something to make things better...

Admittedly, we can't do much to change the ways of the world, but we can offer an amazing new series of five practical and profound meditational videos that will help anchor and sustain you during these difficult days.

Beginning July 16, the Henri Nouwen Society is delighted to present From Fear to Love: Spiritual Grounding in Anxious Times with Rev. Marjorie J. Thompson.

Every week for five weeks, we will introduce a FREE new video on our HNS YouTube channel. Each video is designed to offer you insights and practices on how to enrich, deepen, and strengthen your spiritual life, and how to better cope with the stresses that threaten to erode your physical, mental, and spiritual wellbeing.

An invaluable and much-needed resource for these challenging times!

There will be support materials to accompany these videos available as FREE PDF downloads. To access these materials, you will need to register at Eventbrite:
