Pope Francis' September Prayer Intention:

For the abolition of the death penalty – We pray that the death penalty, which attacks the dignity of the human person, may be legally abolished in every country.

From today's Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18/ Philemon 9-10.12-17/ Luke 14:25-33

The First Reading is part of Solomon's prayer for wisdom. God, the Creator of the universe, is all-wise. In contrast, human beings are ignorant. However, God does not leave us in our ignorance, but bestows the gift of wisdom on all who humbly seek it.

Jesus was on his way to Jerusalem (Gospel). He knew that suffering, rejection and death awaited him at the end of that journey. But it seems that some Galileans regarded it as a victory march of the Messiah. In no uncertain terms Jesus disillusioned them.

Knowing that his disciples would have to face a similar challenge, Jesus spoke about the cost of discipleship. He didn't literally mean hating one's father and mother. The word 'hate' is a Semitic expression. 'Love less' would be nearer to what Jesus had in mind. He was telling his disciples that they must be ready if needs be to sacrifice the dearest things in life. In certain (rare) circumstances they might have to choose between him and their own relatives.

The two short parables make the point that discipleship is a serious calling. It could mean persecution and even death. In this, as in any other spheres of life (scubas business and politics), one shouldn't walk into it blindly. One must calculate the cost before setting out.

"Everyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." Luke 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Did you know... Activist Autumn Peltier was just eight years old when she began advocating for the universal right to clean water. Growing up on Wiikwemkoong on Manitoulin Island, she learned about the importance of clean water from her mom and her aunt and that many Indigenous communities across Canada don't have access to it. Now 15, she has accomplished a lot. She was nominated for the International Children's Peace Prize in 2017, 2018, and 2019; and has been named chief water commissioner for the Anishinabek Nation representing 40 First Nations in Ontario. "I see how graduates from the program have become more involved in the life of the parish: be it on pastoral council or one of the committees such as liturgy or social justice, etc. I have witnessed their faith grow from before they entered to the time of their graduation and how they become more in tune with their faith. In many ways you can see how they have fallen in love with the Lord and with his Church." - Fr. Stephen Bill, Christ the King, Regina.

"One of the problems - challenges - of our age is the growth in individualism and in relativism: that 'I prefer this.' The celebration of the Mass is not a matter of personal choice. We celebrate as a community, as the entire Church. The Church throughout the centuries, has always regulated the form of liturgy that it has come to believe is more pertinent for a particular age." – Cardinal, Arthur Roche.
