Pope Francis' October Prayer Intention:

For a Church open to everyone—We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

From today's Reading

Wis 11:22-12:2/ 2 These 1:11-2:2/ Luke 19:1-10

The world and all it contains is like a grain of sand compared with the greatness of God. Yet God loves all that he has created, and overlooks people's sins so that they can repent (First Reading). The Gospel gives us an example of this in the way Jesus seeks out the tax-collector, Zacchaeus, and calls him to repentance.

At that time tax-collectors were put in the same category as thieves, murderers and prostitutes. Furthermore, because they worked for the Romans, they were regarded as traitors, and treated as outcasts. We can understand, then, how the good people of Jericho were offended when Jesus went to the house of Zacchaeus. But Jesus justified his action by saying that Zacchaeus too was a son of Abraham, and therefore entitled to the mercy of God as any other Israelite. And he declared that it was to seek out and save people like Zacchaeus that he had come.

Touched by the kindness of Jesus, Zacchaeus saw the error of his ways and resolved to change. In this episode we again see Luke's concern for the proper use of wealth — it should be distributed to the poor.

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick. SOCIAL JUSTICE NOTE:

Bulletin announcement for the weeks of November
The parish will be collecting food donations for the Regina Foodbank. There are always families experiencing food insecurity in our communities.
Increased food prices have placed an additional burden on the most vulnerable.

Some most needed items include: instant oatmeal,
pasta and rice, pasta sauce, canned tuna or salmon,
peanut butter, beans, baby cereal, jars of baby food, canned vegetables, canned fruit, canned soups and stews, powdered milk.

Bins will be at the back of the church until Sundays
November.

Please pray for those who are hungry and donate to help fight hunger and feed hope! Jodi Eberle

Stewardship Bulletin BitsOctober 30, 2022*31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, 'Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.'" Luke 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

Archbishops AppealPulpit & Bulletin Announcement

As disciples of Jesus, we are invited to be stewards of hope in our relationships, families, and communities. But in these uncertain and challenging times, that isn't always easy. The Archbishop's Appeal is a tangible way in which you can foster hope in your parish and wider community. Please, prayerfully consider how you can foster hope by donating to the Archbishop's appeal.

Bulletin Reflection

Today's first reading reminds us of the patient love of God. He created the universe, and it is like a dew drop in a field, but with great love, correction is given, and relationship is fostered. The universe is a huge place and knowing that God is as close to us as our own heart is something amazing to ponder and encounter. That encounter continues into the Gospel. Zacchaeus is the tiny tax collector who wants to catch a glimpse of Jesus, and when Jesus asks to stay at his house, it is a surprise. To be a tax collector was to be an outcast in Jewish society: it reminded them of the roman oppressors, and it happened that many tax collectors were dishonest, exploiting many people. So, when Zacchaeus pledges to make amends to the poor and any he extorted, it is clear that his faith in Christ changed his life. The Annual Appeal works to support encounters like the one between Jesus and Zacchaeus, where we realize that Christ loves us deeply, changing our lives forever.

Prayer of Intercession

For all those served by our support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, that they might know the power of Christ's message of faith, hope and love, we pray to the Lord.

The Catechism: the unhacked truth!

For whom is the Catechism intended? The Catechism is first intended for bishops, who are the primary catechists considered to be the foremost teachers of the faith and first pastors of the Church within the diocese. Through the bishops, the priests, deacons and all those given the duty to catechize are teachers of catechesis. While the Catechism is not intended to be directly read by young people or children, St. Pope John Paul II recognized the study of Catechism that provides faithful adults a better understanding of the riches of salvation. The Catechism stresses that a well-formed conscience is upright and truthful and educating the conscience is a lifelong task. Coupled with Sacred Scripture, the Catechism should guide the formation and education toward a well-developed conscience.

What is the difference between opinion, knowledge and belief? Quelle est la différence entre avis, connaissance et croyance ?

itwewin Corner (itwewin is the Cree word which means 'the word' or 'as it is said...') Fr. John Weckend, Archdiocese of Regina Truth and Reconciliation Healing Committee. Did you know... Treaty 4 benefits that First Nations believed they would receive are the physical survival of their nations, peaceful relations with the newcomers through ongoing equitable relations, respect for cultural and spiritual survival as distinct nations by the preservation of their distinctive traditions and institutions, and a transition to a new lifestyle by learning different technologies within education, economics, and health, as well as other benefits. (OTC, 2008, We are All Treaty People, p.13) Today, and throughout the years since the signing of Treaty 4, First Nations people continue to struggle for the fulfillment of these promises as understood and promised at the time of treaty.

The GREY CUP is coming to Regina! Our final football parking fundraiser for Refugee Sponsorship is Grey Cup Sunday November 20 in the afternoon at Holy Rosary Cathedral. We will be using the west parking lot and the Regina Catholic School Board parking lot (with their permission). The large east parking lot will be reserved for Sunday Mass 7 p.m. Someone will be there to direct patrons to the other parking lots. Please let all your friends know all around the country that they can park at Holy Rosary Cathedral. $10 per car. AND, that the entire amount raised will go toward this very young family with two very small children. Thank you so very much for your continuous support!
