Pope Francis' January Prayer Intention:
For educators - We pray that educators may be credible witnesses, teaching fraternity rather than competition and helping the youngest and most vulnerable above all.

From today's Reading

Zephaniah 2.3:3.12-13/ 1Corinthians 1:26-31/ Matthew 1-12

In these readings it is not starvation and misery that are being blessed, these are evil things. What is being blessed, is reliance on God. Those who know their need of God, and who live life as he would have them live it, are truly blessed. They are the most fortunate people in the world. God will give them all they need. Only God can fill our emptiness, only God can satisfy the hunger of our hearts. Those who put their trust in human things will be disappointed. Those who put their trust in God will not be disappointed. God becomes the champion of the poor, the weak, and the lowly, who practice integrity and humility.

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick.

LESSON TEN Does the Catechism replace other catechetical documents of the Church?

No. The Catechism stands beside the other catechetical documents such as, Evangelii Gaudium, Catechesi Tradendae, Evangelii Nuntiandi, the Directory for Catechesis, and catechetical documents of episcopal conferences. These documents create part of the context in which the Catechism is received and mediated to the particular circumstances of the local or national Church. The Catechism is intended to be a resource for the continuing renewal of catechesis and the development of future catechetical materials.

Stewardship Bulletin Bits

January 29, 2023

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” Matthew 5:3

The phrase “poor in spirit” can be confusing. Think of it in this sense – poor in spirit means depending on God’s providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthy things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.

CALLING ALL LAY FORMATION ALUMNI...

A small group of recent Lay Formation Program graduates have come together to create a Lay Formation Alumni. We all shared a very important and life-affirming journey in the program. We share new skills and knowledge acquired in the program, and an ember has been carefully lit in each of us. The Archdiocese of Regina Lay Formation program has been working continuously since 1983. Since then, 591 people have been commissioned through the program, but, unfortunately, we do not have contact information for everybody.

If you are interested in being part of the Lay Formation Alumni, send your contact information to Aseret Ruiz at:

Email: Aseret.ruizp@outlook.com or Cell: 306-201-6317

SAVE THE DATE: We are planning an Alumni gathering Saturday, June 17, 2023 in Regina at Campion College.
