Pope Francis' May 2024
Prayer Intention:
For the formation of religious and seminarians
We pray that religious women and men, and seminarians, grow in their own vocations through their human, pastoral, spiritual and community formation, leading them to be credible witnesses to the Gospel.

Acts 2:1-11/ 1Corinthians 12:3b-7,12-13/ John 20:19-23

Luke has the giving of the Spirit happening on the fest of Pentecost. Jewish tradition saw Pentecost as the feast of the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai. According to a legend a mighty wind turned to fire and a voice proclaimed the Law. In a further refinement, the fire split into seventy tongues of fire corresponding to the event nations of the world: the law was proclaimed, not only to Israel, but to all humankind.

Luke exploits this tradition. He, too, has the mighty wind and tongues of fire coming upon the group of disciples. But for Luke the universal proclamation was not that of Law, but of the Good News, a proclamation that has undone the sentence of Babel and re-united the scattered nations.

In his Gospel John has the giving of the Spirit happening on Easter Day. However, we must avoid any impression of a two-fold initial solemn bestowal of the Spirit. Luke and John are saying the same thing: the risen Lord gives the gift of the Spirit, and inaugurates the mission of the Church. That they differ in their dating is due to theological concerns.

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS
Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick.

Pentecost

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” - 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts.

How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God’s plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God’s plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

Lay Formation Commissioning Mass

Peace Vigil in Rotary Park - Victoria Day

You are invited to join with other people of good will to pray and reflect on peace in the world. Organized by KAIROS Regina, this is a simple invitation to gather for some time together, and to remember those who are victims of war and violence.

WHERE: Peace Pole in Rotary Park between Angus and Rae St (immediately beside the Albert St Bridge).

NOTE: Do not confuse this with Kiwanis Park.

WHEN: Victoria Day, May 20 at 2pm

Gather at the Peace Pole in Rotary Park for some quiet conversation, prayers, and songs. If it is sunny, bring a blanket, chair, and guitar, and wear sunscreen. Feel free to bring a prayer or song of peace to share.

We welcome those who wish to gather in peace. We have no agenda, and we ask you to leave any agenda or banners at home. For further information, contact Nick Jesson, KAIROS Regina, jesson@ecumenism.net

* A peace pole is a monument that displays the message "May Peace Prevail on Earth" in the language of the country where it has been placed, and usually additional translations. The message often is referred to as a peace prayer. The original wooden Peace Pole in Rotary Park was erected by the Rotary Clubs of Regina in 2000 and replaced with a metal pole in 2023.

Resilience and Remembrance: An evening with Holocaust Survivor Kayla Hock

Kayla Hock, a 93-year-old Holocaust survivor, was born in Khotyn, Romania. Kayla will share her family's experiences as a 10-year-old who lived through the darkest time in our history. Join us in hearing Kayla and her family's brave story from Khotyn to Saskatoon. Kayla, her daughter Cindy and grandson Marshall will share a perspective spanning 84 years.

June 2nd, 2024 at Regina Apostolic Church, 808 Assiniboine Ave. East, Regina 6:30pm (door open at 6pm)

Space is limited, so please purchase your ticket her: <https://square.link/u/BLbZQ46>, or call Beth Jacob Synagogue during office hours at 306-757-8643

Your and your Community's attendance would not only honour Kayla Hoke, the survivor who will bravely share her story but also contribute to the ongoing remembrance and education about this critical chapter in history.

I sincerely hope you can join us and share this information with your Community. Please feel free to reach out if you have any questions or need further details.
