August 24, 2025

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last." Luke 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you, "What have you done with the gifts I have given you?" How will you respond?

Walking Together

Visitation House Update

Visitation House has been serving women and children in the Heritage Neighborhood in Regina for nearly 25 years. As it was noted last month, the Advisory Board is taking some time of discernment to review and refresh the vision and mission of Visitation House. We have made the decision to open the doors for just 2 weeks in August, weekdays from August 11th until August 22nd. Beginning August 25th Visitation House will be temporarily closed while the space undergoes some renovations and updates. Until further notice, physical donations will not be accepted. Please watch for updates in the coming months. We hope to open the doors in October and can't wait to share the vision of the refreshed space. The 25th Anniversary will be celebrated in November, and we'll share that date once it is secured. Financial donations continue to be gratefully accepted and may be made by mailing cheques to Visitation House. If you would like to donate via another method, please call Theresa at Visitation House. Fr. John Weckend has once again organized a relay team for the Queen City Marathon to raise money for Visitation House. Please check with your parish to see if you can donate there or contact Theresa. Please continue to pray for the guests of Visitation House, past, present, and future, and those who serve as volunteers and advisory board members. If you would like to be a part of the exciting new future for Visitation House in any way, please contact Theresa Hilbig at Visitation House or Lisa Polk at the Archdiocese of Regina.
