All Souls' Day

"...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me...."

John 6:38

When praying the "Our Father", say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – "thy kingdom come, thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God's will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God's will for you.

Archbishop's Appeal

On this solemnity, we remember the saints—a great multitude clothed in white who stand before the throne of God—and the call to live in purity and hope. Jesus' Beatitudes model the attitudes of blessedness that reflect the Kingdom God envisions. Our Annual Appeal is a way to honor that holy vision by supporting the ministries through which saints next door serve, pray, and love. In giving, we join the communion of saints in building God's work here on earth.

Thinking Faith S03 E08/E09: Machines, Minds, and Meaning: Catholic Reflections on Artificial Intelligence - Part 1& 2

This week on Thinking Faith: The Catholic Podcast Deacon Eric Gurash and Dr. Brett Salkeld discuss the intersection of artificial intelligence and personhood through the lens of a Catholic anthropology.

Drawing on personal experiences with ChatGPT and what the Large Language Model has to say about itself, they reflect on what these interactions reveal about what it means to be human and what it doesn't. Together, they unpack the theological, ethical, and philosophical implications of rapidly advancing AI technology through the lens of Catholic teaching on the human person, reason, and the soul.
