3rd Sunday of Easter

“Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?” Luke 24:32

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that’s a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

Mental Health First Aid Essentials Training

Our faith calls us to accompany one another in times of struggle. As mental health needs grow in our communities, our parishes are often the first place people turn for support. This two-day Essentials Training from the Mental Health Commission of Canada and facilitated by Deacon Eric Gurash of Emmaus Mental Health Ministries, will equip you with practical skills to recognize mental health challenges, respond with compassion, and help others find appropriate care. Ideal for clergy, parish staff, and front-line volunteers.

TF S03 | E20 | Do Miracles Still Happen?

In this episode of Thinking Faith, Deacon Eric Gurash and Dr. Brett Salkeld respond to a question from Grade 9–10 students at Miller High School: Do miracles still happen—and why can’t science prove them? Exploring Scripture, theology, and real-world examples, they unpack the relationship between miracles, faith, and scientific evidence. The conversation highlights why miracles in the Bible—and today—are not “proofs” that force belief, but signs that invite a personal response and deeper relationship with God. This episode offers a thoughtful and accessible look at how faith and reason work together, and why miracles ultimately point beyond themselves to hope, conversion, and God’s presence in the world. bit.ly/TFArchdioceseReginaS03E20

What do we say when someone we love is struggling? How do we support others without trying to "fix" them? And how do we care for our own hearts along the way? Join Deacon Eric and Melissa Gurash of Emmaus Mental Health Ministries for a practical, faith-filled morning focused on tools for conversation, accompaniment, stress management, and self-care.
