May 24, 2026 Pentecost Sunday

“To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.” 1 Corinthians 12:7
To receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit you must open your heart and invite Him in! Ask the Holy Spirit to guide your thoughts, words and actions every day! Be grateful for all the gifts God has given you! Regardless of our individual circumstances, God has given all of us many blessings. What we do with those gifts is our gift back to God! By generously sharing everything we have and everything we are, we become more “God-centered” and less “self centered” and our lives truly reflect God’s light, love and mercy.

Thank you for your Continued generosity to St. Joseph

Spring Campaign

Last week, households across the Archdiocese should have received our Spring Campaign mailing. This mailing was sent with gratitude for the faithful support that continues to sustain the life and mission of our Archdiocese. The mailing shares updates on important initiatives that are not funded through the Archbishop’s Appeal, including Cathedral Renewal and the TRC Healing Response Fund. It also provides an opportunity for those who wish to support this year’s Archbishop’s Appeal early through a spring giving option, ahead of the usual fall launch. We are deeply grateful for the generosity and prayers that continue to support the mission of Christ across southern Saskatchewan. If you did not receive the mailing or would like more information, please contact the archdiocese office.

Bulletin Reflection – In the Gospel for Pentecost Sunday, the disciples are gathered behind locked doors, held back by fear and uncertainty. Into that space, Jesus Christ comes and speaks a simple but powerful word: “Peace be with you.” This is not just a greeting, it is a gift. Christ meets His disciples where they are and offers them the peace they need before anything else can happen. Only then does He send them: “As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” The mission flows from peace, not pressure. Pentecost reminds us that we are not called to mission on our own strength. The same Spirit given to the disciples is given to us. In moments when we feel locked in by fear, uncertainty, or doubt, Christ still enters and speaks peace. He still sends. He still breathes His Spirit into our lives.

Faith-Based Advance Care Directive

Follow-up to Larry Worthen's Presentations: MAiD for You?

One of the most effective ways to counter the narrative of those who encourage assisted suicide—often euphemistically referred to as MAiD—is by completing a Faith-Based Advance Care Directive. Directives are available for free download from the Catholic Health Association of Saskatchewan (CHAS) website at <https://chassk.ca/faithbasedcare/>, or you may pick up a copy from the offices of the Archdiocese of Regina. Additionally, this video provides a guide to help you complete your directive <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BNGgc9ogZ30>. For further information, please contact Peter Oliver at peter@chassk.ca or our ethicist, Mary Heilman, at mary@chassk.ca.
