12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." Matthew 10:32

Would others know that you are Catholic by the way you act and speak? Do you share your Catholic faith with others? Do you defend your Catholic faith when the situation arises or do you remain silent? Do you pray in public before meals? Pray for the strength and courage to be a joyful witness of our Catholic faith when the opportunity presents itself. Let us become the radiant light and bold witness that we are called to be!

HOSPITAL CHAPLAINS

Catholic chaplains visit patients and their families to address any spiritual needs, to pray, to provide a friendly face and comforting presence, to talk about people's fears and concerns, to bring Communion, and to contact a priest for anointing of the sick.

Bulletin Reflection –

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus Christ speaks words of encouragement to His disciples: "Do not be afraid."

He acknowledges that following Him will not always be easy. There will be fear, misunderstanding, and even opposition. Yet His message is consistent and strong. Fear does not have the final word. God does. Jesus reminds His disciples that what is hidden will be revealed, and what is spoken in darkness will come to light. Nothing is outside of God's care or knowledge. Even in moments of uncertainty, we are held by a God who sees and knows us completely.

Three times in this passage, Jesus tells His followers not to be afraid. He calls them to trust, even when the cost of discipleship feels heavy. The One who watches over even the smallest sparrow also watches over each of us with deep care.

At the heart of this Gospel is a simple invitation: to choose faith over fear.
