26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

"At the Threshold of Grace is a conference for Catholic men and women, just like you. Our keynote speakers, Peter and Debbie Herbeck, will draw from the depth of our Catholic faith to discover the unstoppable river of living water that heals stagnation, resurrects what is lifeless, and empowers you to overflow with abundant fruit for God's glory. On October 16–17, step boldly forward to be equipped and rise as a mighty fountain of hope, of peace, and of the life-changing Gospel of Jesus Christ. MAiD and the Stories We Carry:

Reflecting Together on Dying, Death & MAiD

On October 17, we're gathering to reflect on how Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) has touched our lives — especially when someone we love has chosen this path. Many people carry questions, mixed emotions, or unfinished conversations, and this workshop is meant to be a gentle space to share those experiences.

Saturday, October 17, 2026

10am to 4pm (lunch provided)

Christ the King Parish

3239 Garnet Street, Regina, SK

We'll take time to talk about dying and death in our own families and communities, learn how MAiD is defined and guided by the Government of Canada, and explore faith-based and interfaith perspectives on care, accompaniment, and alternatives. As we move through the session, we'll check in on what you're learning and what feels helpful.

Before we close, you'll also have the chance to suggest any follow-up workshops or supports you feel would benefit our community.

Register by Oct 14 through the parish website at <https://www.christtheking.ca/event-registrations> or call the office 306-586-9020
